Welcome Letter from the Head Teacher

Dear Candidate

Thank you for showing an interest in the position of 1-2-1 Learning Support Assistant at Kerem School. This position is part time and involves working with a child in our Reception class with Autism. This would be a job share as the child currently requires full time support. . Internal training and support will be offered to you by our experienced Inclusion Co-Ordinators. External training will also be provided as available.

Kerem School, incorporating the Early Years Unit, opened in 1948 and educates pupils between the ages of three and a half and eleven. We are a community school with approximately 240 pupils on roll. We firmly believe that by building strong partnerships with parents and families we are able to 'work together and achieve together'.

We received "Excellent" in all eight categories in our most recent ISI Inspection.

At Kerem, we aim to provide all our children with a challenging and stimulating education within the security of a warm and caring learning environment. We aim to promote excellence and to celebrate achievement by involving children in their learning objectives through close contact with parents, governors and community, and by ensuring a safe, hard-working atmosphere in which all children can develop positive attitudes to their work. All the children at KS2 have access to 1:1 iPad devices.

You will have an opportunity to play a vital role at Kerem. As a staff member we will work together to develop and strengthen the opportunities offered to the children and ensure that we provide them with the best possible education that we can. Valuing the efforts and attainment of all our pupils, providing them with a strong Jewish identity to leave Kerem as confident individuals prepared for the challenges that lie ahead.

We can offer you a dedicated staff, hardworking children and supportive parents and governors. Professional development opportunities are open to you as well as the flexibility to 'think outside the box'.

If you are ready to take on a new challenge, have enthusiasm and a good work ethic with a passion for making a difference to young lives, this could be the job for you.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards,

Alyson Burns
Head Teacher
